

ABSTRACT. I will address certain repulsion behavior of eigenvalues of the adjacency matrices of $G(n, p)$, with fixed p . Among other things, we show a Wegner-type estimate for the number of eigenvalues inside an extremely small interval; this implies a sub-exponential bound for the probability that the spectrum is not simple.

(Joint with Tao and Vu)